Recommended Book of the Week By Wimbledon

Cosmic by Frank Cottrell Boyce

In Wimbledon class we are currently reading the book 'Cosmic' by Frank Cottrell Boyce and we would like to recommend it to you. This is the hilarious tale of a twelve-year-old boy called Liam Digby. He is an ordinary lad, except for the fact that he has grown a beard and is extremely tall, so tall that he keeps being mistaken for a grown up. As you can imagine, this gets Liam into lots of trouble. In fact his fibs lead to him nearly stealing a Porsche, going to a theme park and ending up in actual SPACE! One of the funniest moments in the book so far is when on his first day at secondary school, his Head-teacher thinks he is the new Media Studies Teacher and he has to speak to the school. If you like to laugh continuously, then this is the story for you. We hope you enjoy it!

“One of my favourite bits is when he tricks his friend into going to China” says Jenner, aged 10.

“My favourite bit is when he was on hold on the phone for ages and ages, he even had his phone on in class” says Charlie, aged 10.

“I liked it when the travel agent to try to persuade Liam’s mum to go on holiday in different countries and she kept thinking of reasons why they shouldn’t go” says Rojin, aged 10.

Happy Red Nose Day from the Office, Admin and Premises Team

Red Nose News

The staff held a Bake Off competition and the winner was Mrs Penny with her Maltesers Masterpiece. After the judging, we auctioned the cakes and raised another £150 for Comic Relief.

Look how happy Mr Hooper was to win the red velvet cake!
